

MORE POWER – WITH YOU!

Operations Center Dispatcher (m/f/d)

Smart Battery Solutions GmbH is an innovative company based in Kleinostheim. We develop and produce intelligent battery systems for many applications, such as emergency systems, cordless screwdrivers, medical technology, e-bikes and electric vehicles.

Our repeated achievement as a growth champion in a study by Focus and Statista show that we always think one step ahead.

Choose us and become a part of the future success story of Smart Battery Solutions GmbH together with us!

YOUR TASKS :

- Responsibility for the Schedules and Material in production
- Successful cooperation between production planning and sales
- Ensuring the most efficient material supplies and monitoring of the material availability in cooperation with production and warehouse
- Order-related and inventory material management
- Implementation of operational purchasing duties
- Analysis of the capacity and material issues as well as coordination of optimization & countermeasures
- Maintaining all the data in our system up to date

WHAT CAN YOU OFFER:

- Successfully completed commercial apprenticeship or university studies in the business field
- Experience in material planning in production
- Solid technical understanding
- Good knowledge of MS-Office, especially Excel
- Good understanding of the ERP System processes and basic SAP skills
- Very good English – written and spoken
- High degree of responsibility, communication skills and organizational qualities

WHAT DO WE OFFER:

- We offer you excellent development opportunities in a promising growth market
- You will work on exciting and highly varied tasks
- You will gain a broad insight into the company's activities and the associated day-to-day business.
- We offer you many employee benefits, such as free drinks and fresh fruit.
- We are a company with a start-up atmosphere, a "You culture", easy and uncomplicated communication channels and helpful colleagues.

Sounds good to you? - Then become part of our fast-growing company and apply!

Please only send us application documents in pdf format and let us know your salary expectations and earliest possible start date.